

FORUM EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

FORUM Chair & Representative to the EABP Board

Alessandro Fanuli (Italy)

is a body psychotherapist and Italian Biosystemic School's teacher; he is a student's training supervisor. He also works privately with individual patients, families and groups. In addition to training in body psychotherapy, he has a criminology education with a second level master's degree in "intervention and valuation of witness in cases of child sexual abuse"; he works as a Private Technical Adviser and Office Technical Advisor at various Courts in Italy.

Luisa Barbato (Italy)

is a certified Reichian body psychotherapist. She is a member of the Board of SIAR (Italian Society of Reichian Analysis) and she teaches body-psychotherapy in numerous Italian post-graduate schools of psychotherapy. She is also a supervisor of SIAR. She is the director of the Scientific Committee of AIPC (Italian Association of Body Psychotherapy) and she was elected as a component of the Italian Board of the Professional Association of Psychologists. She works as a body-psychotherapist in Rome in private and public Institutions with individual and groups therapies. In particular, she works with groups for the development of human potential, emotional release and integral awareness. She has been practicing meditation for 20 years and in her work she uses some methods to integrate the body psychotherapy, the emotional release and the meditation practice to develop a very deep awareness of ourselves and of the others.

FORUM Secretariat

Kerensa Martin (England)

is a holistic massage therapist who has also been an administrator and book-keeper for 30+ years. She is administrator for CABP (EABP-UK) and was administrator for the 2012 EABP Congress in Cambridge, England. She is a representative on the Practitioner Association Council for the Massage Training Institute. She loves to act, dance and garden and spend time with her children and friends. She has a deep interest in human nature and wellness, which led to her re-training in holistic massage in 2010.

