

Wilhelm Reich Infant Trust
Summer Conference at the Wilhelm Reich Museum,
July 8-12 2019, Orgonon, Rangeley, Maine
WILHELM REICH'S WORK DEMOCRACY

Between the years 1938 and 1945, Wilhelm Reich wrote six important texts on work democracy:

1939: The Natural Organization of Work in Work Democracy

1941: Further Problems of Work Democracy

1942: "The Biological Miscalculation in the Human Struggle for Freedom"

1943: "Give Responsibility to Vitaly Necessary Work!" and "Work Democracy versus Politics: The Natural Forces for the Mastery of the Emotional Pest."

1944: "Work Democracy in Action"

Attendees are encouraged to read these ahead of time. When you register prior to the conference, three will be sent to you. The others are included as the final three chapters of The Mass Psychology of Fascism. We will explore the development of Reich's ideas but also how we can put them to use in our own lives, to get practical benefit and to help others.

Passages from selected articles by Wilhelm Reich:

- Work democracy implies the triumph of rational thinking, work, knowledge, and natural love over mysticism, serfdom, political chicanery, pornography, deception, disenfranchisement, and exploitation of the masses.
- Whoever tells the people, "I can't promise you anything, I can't help you, you and you alone must bear the responsibility for your lives"—this is the one who doesn't release them from their responsibility but rather enlightens them and charges them with it; this is the one who will have understood the true meaning of work democracy.
- Work democracy is not an ideological system. Nor is it a "political" system, which could be imposed upon human society by the propaganda of a party, individual politicians, or any group sharing a common ideology. Natural work democracy is the sum total of all functions of life governed by the rational interpersonal relations that have come into being, grown and developed in a natural and organic way. What is new in work democracy is that for the first time in the history of sociology, a possible future regulation of human society is derived not from ideologies or conditions that must be created, but from natural processes that have been present and have been developing from the very beginning.
- Work democracy consciously develops formal democracy, which is expressed in the mere election of political representatives and does not entail any further responsibility on the part of the electorate, into a genuine, factual, and practical democracy on an international scale. This democracy is borne by the functions of love, work and knowledge and is developed organically. It fights mysticism and the idea of the totalitarian state not through political attitudes but through practical functions of life, which obey their own laws. In short, natural work democracy is a newly discovered bio-sociologic, natural and basic function of society.
