

Body Psychotherapy Student Final Paper Award

Winners Student Final Paper Award 2012

In 2012 there were seven entries from three Training Institutes:
Institut für Atem- und Körperpsychotherapie, Germany-Switzerland (3),
Reidman College, Israel (3)
Functional Analysis (1)

1st Place

Rachel Shalit – Reidman International College for Body-Centered Psychotherapy

Thesis: Efficiency of Psychotherapy involving Altered States of Consciousness - Study of literature and proposal of a new therapeutic model (78 points).

2nd Place

Brigitte Obrecht Parisi – Institut für Atem- & Körperpsychotherapie

Thesis: Being a Woman. Female Narcissism and the Development of the I-Force in Breath and Body Psychotherapy (76 points).

3rd Place

Yakov Sagi – Reidman International College for Body-Centered Psychotherapy

Thesis: Holistic Sexuality as a healing tool for Men's Premature Ejaculation within body psychotherapy (72 points).

We would like to thank all of the participants in this process – the students themselves, the Training Institutes who encouraged participation and the three assessors who devoted themselves to the task of expanding the assessment criteria and made the final assessment, Marilena Komi (FORUM representative), Dr. Elya Steinberg (independent assessor) and Dr. Herbert Grassmann (Scientific and Research Committee representative).

We are very satisfied with the results.
