

FORUM Chairs to the EABP Board

Luisa Barbato (Italy)

Luisa is a certified Reichian body psychotherapist and a member of the Board of SIAR (Italian Society of Reichian Analysis). She teaches body-psychotherapy in numerous Italian post-graduate schools of psychotherapy and is also a supervisor of SIAR. She is the director of the Scientific Committee of AIPC (Italian Association of Body Psychotherapy) and she was elected as a component of the Italian Board of the Professional Association of Psychologists. She works as a body-psychotherapist in Rome in private and public institutions with individual and group therapies. In particular, she works with groups for the development of human potential, emotional release and integral awareness. She has been practicing meditation for 20 years and uses several methods to integrate body psychotherapy, emotional release and meditation practice to develop a very deep awareness of ourselves and others.

Alessandro Fanuli (Italy)

Alessandro is a body psychotherapist and a teacher in the Italian Biosystemic School as well as a student training supervisor. He also works privately with individual patients, families and groups. In addition to training in body psychotherapy, he has an education in criminology with a second level master's degree in "intervention and valuation of witness in cases of child sexual abuse". He works as a Private Technical Adviser and Office Technical Advisor at various Courts in Italy.

Member of the Board of Directors

Assaf Avraham (Israel)

Assaf is a body psychotherapist working with a Reichian and Relational approach. He works with individuals in a private clinic, is a supervisor and teaches and guides psychotherapy groups. He has also done research for many years in deepening the connection between the body and the mind in the Reichian approach.

He is head of Body Psychotherapy at Reidman College of Complementary and Integrative Medicine, Israel, and a member of EABP and of the Israel Body Psychotherapy Organization.

"There is no end to the investigation of the body and mind and the dialogue with them will always surprise and excite".

FORUM Secretariat

Giulia Fiorentino (Italy)

Giulia is a clinical psychologist and relational-dynamic psychotherapist in training. She works as an "adult companion" with teenagers and young adults with mental disabilities through relation and emotional dynamics. She has experience in statistics and research in the relational psychology field, and worked in a reasearch program with the Brussels University. She has been a dance teacher for more than ten years and has developed her practice in many body activities. She has a deep interest in body awareness used as a clinic tool as well as a key to the happiness of living.

